

Office of Current Production and Analytic Support

The Operations Center

WEDNESDAY

25 August 1982

25X1

WESTERN HEMISPHERE

3. ARGENTINA: Central Bank President Domingo Cavallo quit yesterday following the resignation of Economy Minister Dagnino Pastore earlier in the day. In his resignation letter, Cavallo stated that his differences with Bignone concerning wages and economic recovery proposals obligated him to leave his post. President Bignone named Jorge Wehbe as Economy Minister. Wehbe has held this post three times since the 1960s. (Reuter; FBIS/Buenos Aires TELAM)
4. EL SALVADOR/HONDURAS: The governments of El Salvador and Honduras signed a treaty yesterday reopening direct trade ties. For the past 13 years third-country intermediaries facilitated trade, which was broken off after a four-day war in July 1969. (Reuter)

UNITED STATES

5. CIA: In a speech yesterday before the American Legion's national convention in Chicago, Director Casey deplored the ease with which the Soviets use the Freedom of Information Act to view US intelligence files and obtain potentially dangerous high technology. (UPI)

TOP SECRET

25X1